EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

SCHEDULE D - CREDITORS HOLDING SECURED CLAIMS

State the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of any account number of all entities holding claims secured by property of the debtor as of the date of filing of the petition. The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. List creditors holding all types of secured interests such as judgment liens, garnishments, statutory liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other security interests.

List creditors in alphabetical order to the extent practicable. If a minor child is a creditor, the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m). If all secured creditors will not fit on this page, use the continuation sheet provided.

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor" ,include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H - Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H", "W", "J", or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community".

If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent". If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated". If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed". (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Total the columns labeled "Amount of Claim Without Deducting Value of Collateral" and "Unsecured Portion, if Any" in the boxes labeled "Total(s)" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report the total from the column labeled "Amount of Claim" also on the Summary of Schedules and, if the debtor is an individual with primarily consumer debts, report the total from the column labeled "Unsecured Portion" on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

☐ Check this box if debtor has no creditors holding secured claims to report on this Schedule D.

SCHEDULE E - CREDITORS HOLDING UNSECURED PRIORITY CLAIMS

A complete list of claims entitled to priority, listed separately by type of priority, is to be set forth on the sheets provided. Only holders of unsecured claims entitled to priority should be listed in this schedule. In the boxes provided on the attached sheets, state the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of the account number, if any, of all entities holding priority claims against the debtor or the property of the debtor, as of the date of the filing of the petition. Use a separate continuation sheet for each type of priority and label each with the type of priority.

The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. If a minor child is a creditor, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor," include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H-Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H," "W," "J," or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community." If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent." If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated." If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed." (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Report the total of claims listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all claims listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Total" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report this total also on the Summary of Schedules.

Report the total of amounts entitled to priority listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all amounts entitled to priority listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Totals" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Individual debtors with primarily consumer debts report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

Report the total of amounts not entitled to priority listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all amounts not entitled to priority listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Totals" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Individual debtors with primarily consumer debts report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

SCHEDULE H - CODEBTORS

Provide the information requested concerning any person or entity, other than a spouse in a joint case, that is also liable on any debts listed by debtor in the schedules of creditors. Include all guarantors and co-signers. If the debtor resides or resided in a community property state, commonwealth, or territory (including Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Puerto Rico, Texas, Washington, or Wisconsin) within the eight year period immediately preceding the commencement of the case, identify the name of the debtor's spouse and of any former spouse who resides or resided with the debtor in the community property state, commonwealth, or territory. Include all names used by the nondebtor spouse during the eight years immediately preceding the commencement of this case. If a minor child is a codebtor or a creditor, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together (Debtor 1 and Debtor 2), both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If you are married and not filing jointly, and your spouse is living with you, include information about your spouse. If you are separated and your spouse is not filing with you, do not include information about your spouse. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 1: Describe Employment

1. Fill in your employment information.

If you have more than one job, attach a separate page with information about additional employers.

Include part-time, seasonal, or self-employed work.

Occupation may include student or homemaker, if it applies.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

DEFINITIONS

"In business." A debtor is "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor is a corporation or partnership. An individual debtor is "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor is or has been, within six years immediately preceding the filing of this bankruptcy case, any of the following: an officer, director, managing executive, or owner of 5 percent or more of the voting or equity securities of a corporation; a partner, other than a limited partner, of a partnership; a sole proprietor or self-employed full-time or part-time. An individual debtor also may be "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor engages in a trade, business, or other activity, other than as an employee, to supplement income from the debtor's primary employment.

"Insider." The term "insider" includes but is not limited to: relatives of the debtor; general partners of the debtor and their relatives; corporations of which the debtor is an officer, director, or person in control; officers, directors, and any persons in control of a corporate debtor and their relatives; affiliates of the debtor and insiders of such affiliates; and any managing agent of the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 101(2), (31).

1. Income from employment or operation of business

None

State the gross amount of income the debtor has received from employment, trade, or profession, or from operation of the debtor's business, including part-time activities either as an employee or in independent trade or business, from the beginning of this calendar year to the date this case was commenced. State also the gross amounts received during the two years immediately preceding this calendar year. (A debtor that maintains, or has maintained, financial records on the basis of a fiscal rather than a calendar year may report fiscal year income. Identify the beginning and ending dates of the debtor's fiscal year.) If a joint petition is filed, state income for each spouse separately. (Married debtors filing under chapter 12 or chapter 13 must state income of both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed.)

A retainer of $ 500 was paid on 4/13/15. A retainer is an advance payment for Law Firm services and the expenses Law Firm may incur on Clients behalf and does not cover the $335 court filing fee. Client understands that such amount will be credited against any amount Client owes Law Firm and will not be refunded regardless if Client decides to cancel filing of the bankruptcy or not. Client understands that if any cash, check or money order given in payment to Law Firm is earned upon receipt, if returned for insufficient funds, Client agrees to immediately pay Law Firm a $40.00 fee in addition to the amount of the returned check. Future payments must be made in cash, money order or debit card.

2. Client is aware of an ethical requirement imposed upon all Law Firms in this state. If a Client, in the course of representation by a Law Firm, perpetrates a fraud upon any person or tribunal, the Law Firm is obligated to call upon the Client to rectify the same. If the Client refuses or is unable to do so, the Law Firm is required to reveal the fraud to the affected person or tribunal. Law Firm reserves the right to withdraw from Client representation if, among other things, Client fails to honor the terms of this Contract, including but not limited to:

- a) client's failure to make timely payment of Law Firm or Court Filing fees,
- b) client intends to commit bankruptcy fraud by lying or omission of their income, assets, financial affairs, marital status, etc.,
- c) if any fact or circumstance arises or is discovered that would render continuing representation unlawful or unethical under the rules,
- d) client's refusal or failure to provide financial documentation,
- e) client's refusal or failure to cooperate with Law Firm,
- f) client's refusal or failure to follow advice on a material matter including failure to pay law firm fees,
- g) client's refusal or failure to complete court requirements,
- h) client's refusal or failure to appear at Law Firm appointments, or
- i) Any combative threatening or harassing conduct by Client.

3. Since the outcome of negotiations and litigation is subject to factors which cannot always be foreseen, Client acknowledges and understands that Law Firm has made no promises or guarantees to Client concerning the outcome and is unable do so. Nothing in this Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee.

4. Client agrees that client has full client file and Law Firm may discard Client records within five (5) years of the completion of the Client's bankruptcy case. Client acknowledges client only provided copies and not original bills or documentation to law firm, and only copies shall be provided. Client acknowledges Law Firm shall immediately shred for their privacy any bills and documentation provided to Law Firm after review, and shall not be returned to client.

5. Law Firm shall provide Client with the following services:

- a) Review and analyze Client's financial circumstances based on information provided by Client.
- b) If possible and to the extent possible, based on the information provided by Client, advise Client of the bankruptcy options and non-Bankruptcy options.
- c) Inform Client what information Client needs to provide Law Firm in order to allow Law Firm to provide appropriate advice and option information, in the event such information Client provided is insufficient.
- d) Advise Client of the appropriate requirements in connection Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 bankruptcy, including the duties of Client connected with such filing.
- e) Quote the Client an estimated fee, to the extent possible given the information provided by Client, for the Law Firms service relative to providing bankruptcy assistance or other legal services to Client.
- f) Assuming that a U.S. Bankruptcy proceeding is filed, Law Firm services will include all typical Law Firm required participation in such proceeding, including but not limited to, appearances at 1st Court scheduled Meeting of Creditors. Any additional 341 Meetings of Creditors besides the 1st scheduled 341 Meeting of Creditors, Client will pay additional $250 per Meeting of Creditors, payable prior to the 341 hearing, and preparation of legal memoranda, and communication with opposing counsel and parties.
- g) If Client's proceeding requires additional, but not customary work, Law Firm will inform Client directly, and enter into a separate written contract for such services to fully apprise Client of the fees, payment requirements, and expected services to be provided.

6. Client acknowledges his/her legal obligation to:

- a) Make timely payment to law firm of legal fees, court fees and due diligence fees,
- b) Timely provide all requested documentation to the Law Firm;
- c) Cooperate with Law Firm;
- d) Answer truthfully in person and on all documentation submitted to the Law firm and to the Court;
- e) Make full and complete truthful disclosure of all assets, all liabilities, income, marital status, etc.;
- f) Timely follow and comply the all Law Firm Instructions, and
- g) Timely provide all financial documents, including tax returns, bank statements, paystubs, etc requested by the Law Firm, before bankruptcy petition can be finalized and filed with the court.

7. Client acknowledges that he/she must attend pre-petition credit counseling before the bankruptcy petition can be filed. Client understands that he/she must also attend post-petition counseling after the bankruptcy petition is filed and within the time frame allowed by statute. Client acknowledges that the bankruptcy cannot be filed without the certificate of completion of the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling. Client understands that no discharge of debts will be issued if the debtor education personal financial management course is not completed and filed with the court within the statutory time frame. Client acknowledges if they fail to complete and file with the court their post-bankruptcy course prior to court deadline their case will be dismissed without a discharge and they will have to pay additional $285 in legal and $260 in court re-opening fees to appear before the judge to motion the court for appropriate relief.

8. Client acknowledges Law Firm only represents client in my federal bankruptcy case, and does not represent client in any other type of case, lawsuit or proceeding other than client's federal bankruptcy case. The Law Firm will not make a special appearance in a court, other than the Bankruptcy Court. It is up to client, to provide notification of client's bankruptcy proceedings, so that another court that Client's proceedings should be stayed. Sending or receiving any summons or complaint, or notifying the Law Firm of a pending lawsuit shall not obligate the Law Firm to represent Client in that lawsuit or before that court. Client must attend all court hearing State and Federal. Any representation of Client in a state court proceeding, including without limitation: collection lawsuits, foreclosure lawsuits, and etc., is not included in this Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract. Any referral made to another Law Firm to represent Client is a courtesy only. The Law Firm is not associated with any other Law Firm outside of the undersigned Law Firm's law offices.

9. Client acknowledges it is their sole responsibility, not their Law Firm, to properly list all their creditors on their bankruptcy. Client acknowledges it is their sole responsibility to review their bankruptcy schedules to insure they properly listed all their creditors on their bankruptcy, and that all the information in their petition, schedules, and all papers are correct, accurate, current and true. Client acknowledges that the Law Firm will not research creditor information, including addresses, account numbers, or balances. Client acknowledges if they forgot to properly list a creditor in their bankruptcy, BEFORE discharge they will have to pay an additional $280 legal fee and court fee to have that creditor properly included in their bankruptcy, AFTER discharge they will have to pay an additional $507 in legal fees and $260 court re-opening filing fee. Client understand failure to do so may result in unscheduled debts subject to non-dischargeability.

10. Client agrees that the following matters are not included within the scope of this Bankruptcy Law Firm Contract. Client agrees that, as to the matters listed below, the Law Firm will not take any action on Client's behalf, without a written request and client signing a separate Retainer Contract and providing an additional retainer fee at Law Firm hourly rate, including but not limited to the following:

- a) Any State Court Matters,
- b) Motions to revoke a discharge.

Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract

- c) Removal of a pending action in another court.
- d) Obtaining title reports.
- f) Appeals to the BAP, District Court or Court of Appeals.
- g) Correcting credit reports,
- h) Negotiations with Check Systems regarding Client.
- i) Motions to Dismiss clients' bankruptcy case filed by the Trustee, U.S. Trustee, or any creditor.
- j) Any adversary proceeding filed by the Trustee, U.S. Trustee, or any other party on any basis, including, without limitations, proceedings to determine dischargeability of debts.
- k) Creditor reaffirmation contracts, preparing, negotiating the terms of reaffirmation Contracts proposed by creditors, motions to redeem personal property, and negotiating reaffirmation contracts when Client's income is not sufficient to rebut the presumption of undue hardship and special circumstances do not warrant the signing of a reaffirmation Contract.
- l) Motion to impose or extend the bankruptcy stay.
- m) Any legal work or time after client receives a discharge or dismissal, including any legal communications with creditors after discharge order.
- 11. Client understands that certain debts cannot be discharged in bankruptcy. Client agrees that Client is still liable to repay any debt not discharged in Client's bankruptcy. Client understands that the debts listed below are common examples of the types of debts that cannot be discharged in bankruptcy. Client further understands that the list of non-dischargeable debts may be expanded by legislation or court decisions and Law Firm has no control over the type of debts that may be or become non-dischargeable, including but not limited to:

- a) Debts not properly listed on their bankruptcy (i.e. client failed to list creditor, or debtor failed to list creditor's full complete name, and complete address, etc.).
- b) Secured debt and debts' with liens attached (ex. cars, homes, electronics, etc. either you must pay for the secured property or surrender)
- d) Certain types of taxes, custom duties, or debts to pay taxes or custom duties.
- e) Student loans.
- f) Debts owed for spousal or child support.
- g) Debts owed to the spouse, former spouse, or child in a domestic relations proceeding.
- h) Debts arising from a previous bankruptcy wherein discharge of that particular debt was waived.
- i) Debts owed for money, property, services, extension-or-removal, or refinancing of credit, if obtained by false pretenses, false representations, or actual fraud.
- j) Consumer debts for luxury goods obtained within ninety (90) days of the date of filing of the bankruptcy petition.
- k) Cash advances obtained within ninety (90) days of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition.
- l) Debts owed for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, or embezzlement or larceny.
- m) Debts owed for fines, penalties, or forfeitures payable to and for the benefit of governmental entity. (ex. parking tickets, fines, tolls, etc);
- n) Debts owed for death or personal injury arising from operation of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft while intoxicated by drugs or alcohol.

12. I agree legal fees are earned at $375/hour for Law Firms time, and services accrued and rendered from 1st Law Firm consultation per telephone, Law Firms time preparing documentation for today's in-person consultation, today's in-person Law Firm consultation, and thereafter for Law Firms time and earned as of date of payment and retained for services rendered to date. I agree I will not get refund for services rendered all legal fees and costs are non-refundable. I agree Law Firms charge for their TIME and legal advice (i.e. consultations by telephone or in person with client, opening file, review documentation, research, etc) and begin working on my case immediately after 1st telephone consultation. I agree if I decide not to continue with bankruptcy or my case is not filed for any reason, any monies already paid will not be refunded to client under any circumstances. I agree attorneys' rate is $375/hr. I agree if I decide to discontinue Law Firm services at any time, I must provide in writing via certified mail, to discontinue this service. Law Firm will continue working on case and continue billing until they are properly notified in writing via certified mail. I agree to pay for bill for Law Firm time until Law Firm receives proper written notice to terminate their service. I agree all funds first go toward attorney fees, after all attorneys' fees are paid, remaining funds are applied to reimburse Law Firm for expenses and costs. I must submit written refund request for refund by certified mail.

13. Client understands that filing bankruptcy does not automatically discharge or remove liens from any real estate, cars etc. Client agrees that the Law Firm will not take any action to avoid (remove) any lien on real estate unless Client specifically signs an additional retainer and authorizes the Law Firm to do so in writing. Client agrees that the Law Firm will rely on Client's statements concerning ownership of real property and any liens attached to Client's real property. Client agrees that no real estate title search will be conducted. Client agrees that Law Firm will not conduct a public records search for lawsuits filed against Client or judgments granted against Client. Client must separately order and pay for a real estate title search, or public records search for lawsuits or judgments, if client wishes to obtain one. Client agrees to hold the Law Firm harmless if client later discovers liens, lawsuits or judgments against Client or against Client's real estate.

14. Client understands that individuals who file for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code are subject to audits by the U.S. Trustee. If Client's case is selected for an audit, Client agrees to pay Law Firm the customary hourly rate $375 for representing Client in such audit.

15. Deep discounted fee is based upon Client's timely payment of all fees, timely compliance of all Law Firm instructions and tasks, and Law Firm preparation of one set of legal documentation necessary for bankruptcy, and does not include months of updating and continuous Attorney re-evaluation of Clients current financial status under the Bankruptcy laws. Client delays in paying, providing documentation, completing their requirements, etc. cost the Law Firm additional time, and thus will result in additional fees to the client at the Law Firm hourly rate. Client acknowledges Law Firm will charge additional fees of $175 i.e. updating fee, if Client procrastinated and waited longer than three months (90) days from the first date Law Firm is retained to pay their law firm fees and complete their law firm instructions. If client delays and waits longer than six months 180 days to pay their law firm fees, complete their instructions etc. their case file will be closed as inactive all fees being earned and the client must start over with new with new legal fees since the Law Firm must start over re-analyzing and calculating debtor's current financial situation, due diligence, re-draft current legal documentation after analyzing and calculating under their current financial situation to finalize the bankruptcy schedules.

16. Client hereby acknowledges and affirms that Client has read the entire contract and understands all the terms contains in this entire Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract and agrees to be bound by all its terms. Client affirms that whether written, spoken, recorded or transcribed by any other means, no other terms, promises, statements etc. of any kind are made part of this Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract. Client is in agreement and through his/her signature hereby contracts to abide to all the terms of this contract, including timely payment, and grounds for withdrawal of representation, and has signed on the signature lines below. Client further acknowledges that Client has received a copy of this Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract and required disclosure documentation.

INITIAL CONSULTATION AGREEMENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF DISCLOSURES

This agreement is entered into on this day of _____ 2015, by and between _____, and Affordable Legal Services (referred to as "Law Firm").

1. I (We) have requested a consultation with the Attorney to obtain information and advice about debt issues and relief from debt, including the possibility of filing bankruptcy under the federal Bankruptcy Code. The Attorney agrees to provide an initial consultation concerning these matters. There is no charge for this initial consultation.

2. The Law Firm agrees to provide the following services at the initial consultation, based on the information I (we) have provided:

(a) Analyze my (our) financial circumstances and advise me (us) of possible bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy options for responding to my (our) financial problems. I (We) understand that this analysis is only preliminary, because the Law Firm does not have all of the information and documents that will be required to fully evaluate my (our) situation.

(b) Describe the potential benefits and the disadvantages of filing bankruptcy, and explain the relief available under chapters 7, 11, 12 and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Advise me (us) of the requirements, obligations and costs for filing a chapter 7 or 13 bankruptcy.

(d) Inform me (us) of the additional information that I (we) will need to provide to enable the Law Firm to more fully advise me (us) of my (our) potential options and legal rights.

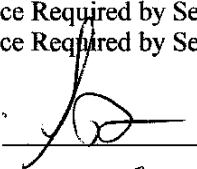

3. I (We) agree to provide at the initial consultation information and documents, if any, concerning my (our) income, expenses, assets, and liabilities. I (We) understand that in order for the Law Firm to give meaningful advice, detailed financial information must be provided completely and accurately.

4. The Law Firm will provide at this time only the services specifically stated in this Agreement. If I (we) retain the Law Firm to represent me (us) and provide additional services, including the filing of bankruptcy or other bankruptcy assistance, I (we) and the Law Firm will sign a separate retainer agreement detailing the services and their cost, and the other terms of such representation.

5. I (We) acknowledge that the Law Firm gave to me (us) at the initial consultation copies of this agreement and several notices required by the Bankruptcy Code listed below. If my spouse was not present when these notices were received at the initial consultation, I also acknowledge receipt of these notices on behalf of my spouse, and agree to provide my spouse with a copy of these notices. All of the following documents were given me (us):

- (a) Initial Consultation Agreement
- (b) Notice Required by Sections 342(b) and 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code
- (c) Notice Required by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

STATEMENT OF INFORMATION REQUIRED BY 11 U.S.C. §341

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, the Office of the United States Trustee, United States Department of Justice, has prepared this information sheet to help you understand some of the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This information is intended to make you aware of...

- (1) the potential consequences of seeking a discharge in bankruptcy, including the effects on credit history;
- (2) the effect of receiving a discharge of debts
- (3) the effect of reaffirming a debt; and
- (4) your ability to file a petition under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

There are many other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that may affect your situation. This information sheet contains only general principles of law and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have questions or need further information as to how the bankruptcy laws apply to your specific case, you should consult with your lawyer.

WHAT IS A DISCHARGE?

The filing of a chapter 7 petition is designed to result in a discharge of most of the debts you listed on your bankruptcy schedules. A discharge is a court order that says you do not have to repay your debts, but there are a number of exceptions. Debts which may not be discharged in your chapter 7 case include, for example, most taxes, child support, alimony, and student loans; court-ordered fines and restitution; debts obtained through fraud or deception; and personal injury debts caused by driving while intoxicated or taking drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, destroy or conceal property; destroy, conceal or falsify records; or make a false oath. Creditors cannot ask you to pay any debts which have been discharged. You can only receive a chapter 7 discharge once every eight (8) years.

WHAT ARE THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF A DISCHARGE?

The fact that you filed bankruptcy can appear on your credit report for as long as 10 years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. Also, you may not be excused from repaying any debts that were not listed on your bankruptcy schedules or that you incurred after you filed for bankruptcy.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF REAFFIRMING A DEBT?

After you file your petition, a creditor may ask you to reaffirm a certain debt or you may seek to do so on your own. Reaffirming a debt means that you sign and file with the court a legally enforceable document, which states that you promise to repay all or a portion of the debt that may otherwise have been discharged in your bankruptcy case. Reaffirmation agreements must generally be filed with the court within 60 days after the first meeting of the creditors.

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary — they are not required by the Bankruptcy Code or other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt.

Reaffirmation agreements must not impose an undue burden on you or your dependents and must be in your best interest. If you decide to sign a reaffirmation agreement, you may cancel it at any time before the court issues your discharge order or within sixty (60) days after the reaffirmation agreement was filed with the court, whichever is later. If you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any remaining debt.

OTHER BANKRUPTCY OPTIONS

You have a choice in deciding what chapter of the Bankruptcy Code will best suit your needs. Even if you have already filed for relief under chapter 7, you may be eligible to convert your case to a different chapter.

Chapter 7 is the liquidation chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to collect and sell, if economically feasible, all property you own that is not exempt from these actions.

Chapter 11 is the reorganization chapter most commonly used by businesses, but it is also available to individuals. Creditors vote on whether to accept or reject a plan, which also must be approved by the court. While the debtor normally remains in control of the assets, the court can order the appointment of a trustee to take possession and control of the business.

Chapter 12 offers bankruptcy relief to those who qualify as family farmers. Family farmers must propose a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five year period and it must be approved by the court. Plan payments are made through a chapter 12 trustee, who also monitors the debtor's farming operations during the pendency of the plan.

Finally, chapter 13 generally permits individuals to keep their property by repaying creditors out of their future income. Each chapter 13 debtor writes a plan which must be approved by the bankruptcy court. The debtor must pay the chapter 13 trustee the amounts set forth in their plan. Debtors receive a discharge after they complete their chapter 13 repayment plan. Chapter 13 is only available to individuals with regular income whose debts do not exceed $1,000,000 ($250,000 in unsecured debts and $750,000 in secured debts).

AGAIN, PLEASE SPEAK TO YOUR LAWYER IF YOU NEED FURTHER INFORMATION OR EXPLANATION, INCLUDING HOW THE BANKRUPTCY LAWS RELATE TO YOUR SPECIFIC CASE. I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

B201A (form 201A) (11/11) In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $246)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a 'trustee' and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

Disclosure Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 527(a)(2) of Bankruptcy Code

The purpose of this Notice and The Statement Mandated by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which you have been provided as a separate document, are to make you aware of some of your obligation should you file bankruptcy.

Note: This Notice and the Statement are required by legislation adopted by the 2005 Congress. So long as you are honest and meet the requirements set out under the law you are entitled to debt relief. We can guide you through all the requirements of filing bankruptcy so long as you provide us accurate and complete information.

You are notified as follows:

1. All information that you are required to provide with your bankruptcy petition and thereafter in your case is required to be complete, accurate and truthful.
2. All your assets and all your liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your case.
3. The value of each asset which is secured by a lien on such asset must be stated as the replacement value of such asset after reasonable inquiry to establish such value. The replacement value means the replacement value of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition without deduction for costs of sale or marketing. With respect to property acquired for personal, family or household purposes, replacement value means the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value as determined.
4. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state your current monthly income. Current monthly income is described on the attached of Terms and Definitions Addendum.
5. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state the amounts set out in section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Those amounts are explained in the attached Terms and Definitions Addendum.
6. In a case under Chapter 13, after reasonable inquiry, you are required to state your disposable income determined in accordance with section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Disposable income is explained on the attached addendum of Terms and Definitions.
7. Information that you provide during your case may be audited pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Your failure to provide accurate and complete information may result is dismissal of your case or other sanctions, including criminal sanctions.
8. Certain property you own is called "exempt property" and is not property of the Bankruptcy Estate. Exemptions are based upon either the Bankruptcy Code or State law. In the state of Illinois exemptions are determined by state statutory law and the Illinois Constitution. In order to avail yourself of the exemptions of the state of Illinois you must have continuously lived in the state of Illinois for the 180 days immediately preceding the filing of your petition.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

I understand for my privacy and protection, all documentation I provide to my Law Firm will be immediately shredded upon their entering the data into my legal documentation for my bankruptcy, and shall not returned to me. I have only provided copies and no original bills or paperwork to my law firm. If I wish to provide any bills or paperwork, I agree any paperwork submitted will be shredded for my privacy and not returned to me. If I wish to keep any bills or paperwork I understand and agree I shall only provide copies of any bills or paperwork to my Law Firm, since I acknowledge all documentation shall be immediately shredded for my privacy and nothing shall be returned to me, or I shall make copies at my cost at the Law office at .20/copy.

The Law Firm will procure on my behalf my creditor report which I shall promptly pay the Law Firm for my credit report prior to filing at my closing signing of my paperwork.

I understand it is my sole responsibility, not my Law Firm, to list and insure all my creditors are listed on my bankruptcy. I acknowledge my Law Firm will not list any of my creditors. Only the creditors that I list in my eQuestionnaire will be downloaded and listed in my bankruptcy. If I order a CIN report, these creditors will be downloaded in my bankruptcy. It is my sole responsibility to review my bills, Cin report, credit reports, etc, and bankruptcy creditor list to insure and verify I properly listed all my creditors. I acknowledge I reviewed my bills, credit report, creditor list, etc. to insure I properly listed all my creditors my bankruptcy petition, eQuestionnaire, and all my bankruptcy forms. I understand if I forgot to properly list a creditor in my bankruptcy petition, I must pay an additional fee to include any creditor after filing. If I fail to properly include any creditor in my bankruptcy it is my soel responsibility and I may be legally responsible to pay that debt.

SECURED PROPERTY DISCLOSURE

Secured property occurs when you make a purchase (car, electronics, furniture, jewelry, home, etc) and the creditor/lender retains a secured lien interest on that property. This debt is secured by the property. If you fail to pay the secured debt the creditor will repossess the property, and sue you for the balance you owe, plus attorneys' fees, repossession costs, court costs, interest and penalties, etc. Bankruptcy does not wipeout/eliminate your secured debts. You cannot keep the secured property and not pay. This would be fraud and a crime. You must make a choice. Basically, you either timely continue to pay the secured debt/loan or you timely surrender the property back to the creditor/lender.

SURRENDER: You may surrender the item back to the secured creditor/lender in your bankruptcy case. If you choose to this you will no longer be required to make any payments on the loan/secured debt, and you will not be held responsible for repayment after your bankruptcy case is completed. If you choose to surrender the property, you must contact the creditor and make arrangements to drop off the property to them, or the date and time when the creditor can retrieve the property. You can not hide the secured debt and not return it or you will face additional fees and or criminal actions against you.

REAFFIRMATION: What is a Reaffirmation Contract? We call it a Post-Bankruptcy contract. Before you filed BK you signed a contract to legally obligate yourself to pay that debt. After you filed BK that contract is no longer fully valid. Your secured lender hired a Law Firm to prepare a contract for you to sign after you filed BK, called a "Reaffirmation Contract." Once you sign their legal contract, you are legally bound (obligated) to pay the entire debt, and agreeing to the terms of their contract, allowing them to repossess, charge interest, penalties, and sue you if you ever become late with a payment. If you default on a payment, the creditor can repossess the property and sue you for the balance due on the loan. You have 60 days after you sign the reaffirmation contract to change your mind by "rescinding" the contract. You (not your attorney) can only rescind by sending your rescind letter by certified mail to the creditor, their attorney, and filing it with the Bankruptcy Court, before 60 days past of signing contract. If you wish to sign the reaffirmation contract to reaffirm the debt, you will be required to attend a court hearing to have the contract approved by the court. Pursuant to your contract we do not represent you at this hearing. The judge will determine whether this debt will cause you and your family a financial hardship, whether you can afford the debt, whether it is in your best interest, and the best interest of your family. We do not believe you can afford the debt, nor that reaffirming the debt is in your best interests and that it will cause you financial hardship, therefore we will not sign it stating that it is in your "financial best interests." If we receive a reaffirmation from a secured lender we will forward it to you. However, it is up to you to contact your secured lender promptly after your BK is filed and ask them to provide you with a reaffirmation contract. By signing the reaffirmation contract, you will have to timely provide the contract to the secured creditor and deal directly with them and attend all court hearings with regard to the secured debt.

REPOSSESSION: Signing a reaffirmation contract does not prevent your vehicle from being repossessed. Your secured debt will be repossessed, if you your payments are not current during your BK are current, you fail to provide proof of insurance to the lender, and that you failed to timely provide the lender the signed and completed reaffirmation contract sign. So long as the payments are made, the creditor should not repossess the property. If the property is repossessed, you will not be held responsible for the balance, however you will not receive any refund for the money you already paid for the vehicle or secured property.

MOTION TO LIFT STAY: The first step in starting the repossession process against you. This Motion allows creditor to continue their State Court Action which was stayed, in order to obtain (repossess) the secured property that you are late on your payments, etc.

If you are late on your payments, failed to provide the secured lender your proof of insurance, failed to sign their reaffirmation contract, or stated your intent to surrender the property, etc. the secured lender hired a Law Firm to file a motion to lift stay. Lift the Stay means the Secured Lender's Law Firm appears in court to ask BK judge to allow them permission to proceed against you to repossess and re-take possession of your vehicle if you are late on your vehicle or other secured property payments. If you are late on your payments, these Motions are most often granted as a matter of right in Judge's Chambers, so you will not need to attend the hearing. If you do not want them to repossess the vehicle or other secured property contact your secured lender and provide them the current default payments and insurance and reaffirmation contract. This may not alleviate the repossession, however they may be willing to work with you. Pursuant to contract we do not represent you for any Motion's to Lift Stay. If you wish we attend the court hearing on your behalf you will need to come in and sign retainer and pay a court appearance fee.

Remember you cannot keep the property without paying! Financially the best solution may be to surrender the vehicle/property

If you to keep the secured property, you must do the following:

1. Immediately after the filing of your BK, contact your secured lender and inform them you want to keep the secured debt,
2. Provide the secured lender your payment for your overdue balance, plus interest, attorneys fees, court fees, interest, etc. to come current,
3. Ask them to mail you their reaffirmation contract to sign, and
4. Provide the secured lender your signed reaffirmation contract making you legally liable for any future late, attorneys, interest, court, interest fees, etc
5. You must remain current with your monthly payments throughout your BK;
6. You must provide the secured lender proof you have insurance if a vehicle or home, etc.

If you wish to surrender. Contact your secured lender immediately after the filing of your Bk and inform them you wish to surrender and return the property back to them. Set up a date and time and surrender the property. Take photos of the property to show you did not damage the property, and a copy of your insurance on the property

As you are aware, you are required to attend all State Court hearings. You must attend all court motions/hearing State, Federal, Criminal, etc. otherwise you will be held in contempt of court; you will be arrested, and will have to pay a fine and go to jail.

REDEMPTION LUMP SUM: You may contact the secured creditor and offer them a reasonable lump sum payment for the property to wipe out the lien. If the creditor accepts your offer, you must promptly pay the creditor the lump sum to keep the property. Try this if you have electronics, jewelry, or smaller secured debt items.

REDEMPTION 722 (CAR ONLY): If you don't have a lump sum, you may contact a Redemption company. A company may help you qualify to keep your car and have your car payments reduced significantly. If you qualify and choose to redeem, they will finance our attorneys' fees into the settlement for hourly fee to draft, file, and argue before the court the necessary motions with the bankruptcy court. If you qualify for one of these programs you must timely inform the secured lender and inform our law firm by Gmail that you qualify.

CONTINUE PAYING: If you continue making payments on your secured loans hoping your creditors will not try to repossess the property, even if you are current on your payments, creditor may still repossess the property because you failed to provide them your proof of insurance or did not timely provide them your signed reaffirmation contract.

PRIOR TO FILING WE REQUIRE YOUR DECISION ON YOUR STATEMENT OF INTENTION YOUR CHOICE OF SURRENDER, REDEMPTION, AND REAFFIRMATION IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE US YOUR SIGNED STATEMENT OF INTENTION, THE CREDITOR IS PERMITTED TO REPOSSESS THE PROPERTY.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the

Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
